OUR VISION:

We envision a parish rooted in Christ and welcoming to all who seek Him, that draws people into deeper communion through the gospel proclaimed in word and deed, so that every person encounters the love and mercy of Christ.

For evangelization in the city

Let us pray that in large cities often marked by anonymity and loneliness we find new ways to proclaim the Gospel, discovering creative paths to build community.

Week 2: The Mission of the Laity

You don't have to be a priest, sister, or religious leader to have a mission.

Through our Baptism, each of us is called to participate in the mission of the Church. Our everyday lives—our families, friendships, workplaces, neighborhoods, and communities—are places where we can bring the love of Christ to others.

Think About This...

Where has God placed you to make a difference?

Who are the people you encounter every day who may need encouragement, kindness, or simply someone to listen?

Do you think of your everyday life as part of your Christian mission?

This Week's Challenge

Choose one person you regularly encounter and be intentional about showing Christ's love to that person this week. It may be as simple as listening, encouraging, checking on them, or praying for them.

Remember

You don't have to travel somewhere to become a missionary. Your mission begins right where God has placed you
