

Black Catholic Heritage Workshop

Last week we announced that the workshop and events around that weekend were postponed due to the funeral arrangements for Bishop Slattery. The committee has spent endless hours working to get this rescheduled in a timeframe that works for all parties involved; including the parishioners of Uganda Martyrs, St Monica, and St Augustine.

The new schedule is February 21, 22, and 23, 2025. What a great way to celebrate Black History Month and introduce the Lenten Revival scheduled for March, 23 - 25, 2025

We realize this is during colder weather but this was the ONLY time we could schedule Bishop David, Father Kastl, and the speakers from Washington, DC & Howard University (Ali and Father Boxie).

What we as a committee ask of you is your patience, understanding, and prayers for good weather. Time and locations will be the same except for the Saturday workshop and Praise & Worship. We are diligently working on a different venue because OSU was not available on the new date.

Friday evening, 6 - 8 pm: Meet & Greet at St. Monica's Bradley Hall, featuring history presentations and an elegant reception.

Saturday, 8 am - 5 pm: Workshops, lunch, and Praise & Worship. Location to be announced.

Sunday at 10:00 am: Unity Mass at St. Monica.

This will give us more time to spread the word and invite more guests. If you previously registered there is no need to reregister; we will use the information that was submitted. If you have any questions please contact any of the committee members.
